

Christoph Sobotta

Christoph Sobotta is a référendaire (legal secretary) in the Chambers of Advocate General Juliane Kokott at the Court of Justice of the European Union. Since 2003, he has assisted the Advocate General in more than 100 cases, in particular in the area of environmental law, but also in cases concerning data protection and access to documents. Between 2001 and 2003 he had been a case handler in the infringement unit of the Directorate General for the Environment of the European Commission.

Christoph Sobotta studied law at the University of Frankfurt am Main and at Keele University in the UK. In his doctoral thesis he discussed Transparency in the legislative process of the European Union. He has published and spoken on many issues of EU law, in particular on EU environmental, data protection and constitutional law as well as on the Court of Justice.
