EUROPEAN CERTIFICATE OF SUCCESSION

Gabriella Breczkáné dr. Békési

INTRODUCTION

- Cross - border succession – high complexity:
 - from divergences in the substantive rules, the procedural rules and the conflict rules applicable in the Member States
 - increasing number of marriages between nationals of the different Member States
- original twin-track solution:
 - acts under national law can also be enforced in an other MS
 - introduces a completely new instrument the European Certificate of Succession (ECS): a sui generis Union legal instrument
- High cost, high value system
- Flexible system
- Recitals 67 - 72
